Notice to applicants and employees regarding consumer reports

A consumer report and/or an investigative consumer report including information concerning your character, employment history, general reputation, personal characteristics, criminal or police records, motor vehicle record, mode of living, and/or credit and indebtedness may be obtained for employment purposes at any time. An investigative consumer report is a consumer report, which contains information obtained from interviews with your neighbors, friends, or associates. Upon timely written request of the Personnel Department of the Company, and within 5 days of the request, the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report obtained will be disclosed to you.

Before any adverse action is taken in whole or in part as a result of information contained in a consumer report or an investigative consumer report, you will be provided a copy of the report and summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Disclosure and release

In connection with my application for employment with Scrubs Etc., I understand that consumer reports, which may contain public record information may be requested. These reports may include the following types of information: names and dates of employment, reason for termination of employment, accidents, work experiences, etc. I further understand that such reports may contain public record information concerning my driving record, credit, bankruptcy proceedings, criminal records, etc., from federal, state and other agencies which maintain such records.

You have the right, upon written request, to receive a written description of the nature and scope of the investigation requested and a written summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

I authorize, without reservation, any or entity contacted by Scrubs Etc. or its agent or agents to furnish the above-stated information, and I release any such person or entity from any liability for furnishing such information.
